PET LINE

NEW RELEASES

2026

Advanced cosmetic formulations for the care and well-being of pets.

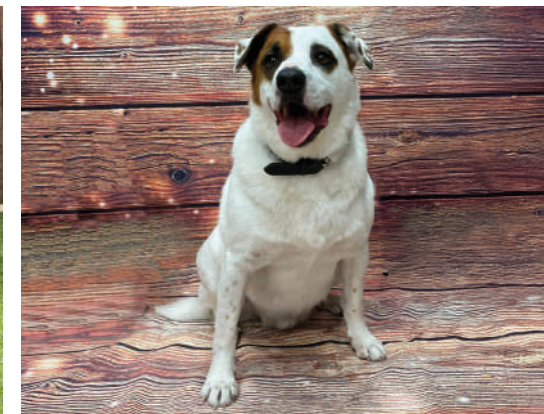

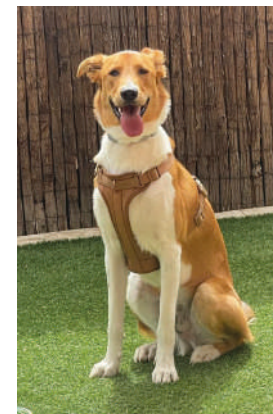

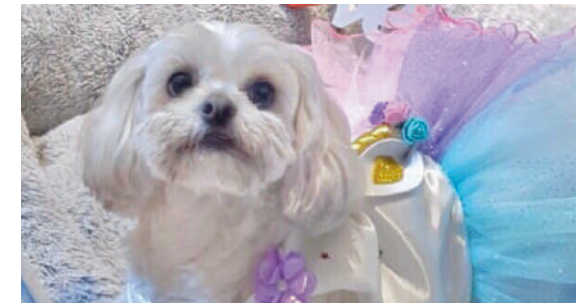

“In our laboratory, there is something more than formulas under development.

There are eyes waiting for us, walks at the end of the day, and companions who remind us every day why care matters.

They are part of the Klein family, and they are the reason why we develop products designed for their real well-being.”

At Laboratorios Klein Cosmética, we are taking a further step in the development of cosmetic solutions with a new line dedicated to pet care, designed to respond to a need that is increasingly present in the market.

Formulations adapted to their skin and coat, developed with selected active ingredients, lightweight textures and practical formats that make everyday application easier, ensuring a comfortable and effective user experience.

A proposal that combines technical development, sensoriality and real value, aligned with new market demands and aimed at creating distinctive products for every project.
